FROM: Dep. [redacted] DEPARTMENT [redacted] Division CC:

SUBJECT: [redacted]

On April [redacted] one [redacted] W/M [redacted] residing at [redacted] La. was reported missing by [redacted]. Shortly there after this officer had the occasion to spea to [redacted] as to the possible location of [redacted] and his reason for lea home. Mr [redacted] stated that he had deep concern as to the whereabouts of [redacted] due to the fact he had found several books concerning Guerrilla Warefare locked in his room. It was discovered [redacted] was investigated by the Warren Committee and also by the F.B.I. [redacted] was associate with Lee Harvey Oswald and with such groups as Alpha 66 and Morgan's Brigad but as to his involvement was disclosed at this time. [redacted] had in hi possession several books and writings taken from [redacted] room, one of the books was 150 Questions for a Guerrilla by General Alberto Bays. Writings were found on such topics as concelment, night movement, how one goes about taking over a Country Red Style and techniques for making bombs, placement of them for maxium effect and how to go about exploding these bombs.

[redacted] was receiving psychiatric he through Dr. Hutchunson at the Tulane University and was very unstable at th time of his leaving. Philip Geraci III hated his father with a pasion. D his last week home, if his father had touched a door knob, his son would wi it off with a clean cloth before touching it. He refused to eat off the same dishes with his father or eat at the same table. Mr Geraci worked at the N.A.S.A. plant and required a "secret" clearance and he was concerned a to whether his son would try to get at him through employment by placing a bomb. Philip Geraci III had knowledge of how to make a bomb through the books he had on Guerrilla Warfare. Philip also had access to chemicals at school due to the fact that he was taking Chemistry at East Jefferson. He had also toured the N.A.S.A. plant when his father noticed Philip looking o the security.

Mr. Geraci also had writings where his son had organized a group calle the "March Scurodeos" wherein students who wished to join could file an application to his organization. The name of the organization was "Liberat Rather Than Oppression". The membership in this organization were as follo
